

Decision-Making Styles Guide

Decision-making Style	Use when:	Strengthen this style by:
Directive "I decide"	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>You are under time pressure</li> <li>You are the one with all the relevant information and responsibility</li> <li>Decisions are related to inconsequential matters, with little impact</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Explain why the decision was made</li> <li>Let people know how to get more information, ask questions</li> <li>Be willing to listen to feedback and possibly adjust or change decisions if it makes sense</li> <li>If made in an emergency situation, use it as a learning opportunity; what was or wasn't effective</li> </ul>
Consultative "I decide with input from you"	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>You have the primary responsibility for action and a lot of the relevant information</li> <li>You need others' expertise to make a better decision</li> <li>The group values both clear authority for decisions and participation</li> <li>You don't have the time to negotiate consensus</li> <li>You need some level of commitment</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Provide structure to the type of feedback you are seeking</li> <li>Be clear that the final decisions rests with you</li> <li>Confirm and communicate the final decision to the group</li> <li>Tell the group how their feedback impacted your decision-making</li> </ul>
Democratic "One person, one vote"	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>You're okay with all the options</li> <li>You don't anticipate major resistance from those who "lose"</li> <li>When you need to narrow down the field of alternatives</li> <li>Large numbers of people need to be involved</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Make sure enough information is shared so that group can make an informed choice</li> <li>Create an opportunity for discussion about pros and cons; make sure multiple perspectives are heard</li> <li>Get group member agreement to comply with the final decision even if they are not in favor</li> <li>Consider using two-thirds rather than 51% if you need greater commitment</li> </ul>
Consensus "We decide and we support the decision"	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>You want high quality input and commitment, with follow-through</li> <li>There is group understanding of the issues and team members are willing to share opinions openly</li> <li>The team is making a decision on behalf of the entire organization</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use a structured process that allows plenty of time for exploring all options, thoughts and feelings relative to the decision</li> <li>Understand the consensus does not mean that everyone has to "love" the decision, but they do need to fully support the decision once it's made</li> </ul>